

Section 8 The Internal Audit Function

The Group has established the Office of Internal Audit is acting independently to inspect operations and to assess the effectiveness of AML/CTPF measures within the organization, particularly for business operations and the Information Technology system supporting operations at least 1 audit shall be conducted to assess AML/CTPF performances. The audit results will be reported directly to relevant committees, or senior executive.